

The Institute of Banking and Finance (IBF) is an industry association that supports individuals in developing their careers and skills in the financial industry.

Where are you on your journey?

There are various career support schemes to help you in your career development path:

You are looking for a job in financial services

MyCareersFuture

What it is

Job portal for positions open to Singaporeans and PRs.

What to do

See what jobs are available on MyCareersFuture

You are a fresh graduate:

Graduated in 2019 or 2020

SGUnited Traineeship

What it is

Traineeship programme to acquire industry experience through 4- 9 months of on-the-job training while receiving up to $2,500 training allowance per month

What to do

Search MyCareersFuture for traineeship opportunities under the hashtag #SGUnitedTraineeships.

You are an early/mid-career professional:

interested in a career in technology

Technology in Finance Immersion Programme

What it is

Full-time structured training and attachment for up to 2 years, with monthly training allowance, to gain experience in key technological areas

What to do

Look out for application details on IBF's TFIP webpage: bit.ly/ibf-tfip

TESA Mid-Career Advance

What it is

Job and re-skilling opportunities for technology-related roles for Singaporeans age 40 and above

What to do

Go to bit.ly/ibf-tesa to apply for jobs in the TESA Mid-Career Advance programme.

or keen to acquire in-demand skills and experience

SGUnited Mid-Career Pathways

What it is

Attachment programmes for up to 9 months to widen your professional networks and gain new & in-demand skills

What to do

Find out more about this programme and how to apply on bit.ly/sgunitedmcp

or plan to enhance your employability with new skills

IBF Enhanced Training Support

What it is

Support package for individuals to upskill. Up to 95% course fee subsidies and $10/hour training allowance

What to do

Check out the IBF Programme Finder for eligible courses. Visit bit.ly/ibf-ets for more details.

SGUnited Skills

What it is

Full-time training modular programme with workplace immersions and industry projects. S$1,200/month training allowance.

What to do

Check the MySkillsFuture page for eligible courses and how to apply.

or wish to deepen your existing skills

Financial Specialist Scholarship

What it is

Postgraduate scholarship programme to develop specialist leaders within the Singapore financial services sector

What to do

Visit bit.ly/ibf-fss for eligibility criteria and application dates.

Skills Future Study Award

What it is

Additional support for finance professionals to deepen their skills. $5,000 to defray out-of-pocket expenses for courses.

What to do

Visit bit.ly/ibf-sfsa for eligibility criteria and application dates.

If you need help navigating, or are considering a career in Financial Services

IBF Careers Connect

IBF Careers Connect provides career advisory services to individuals keen to join the financial industry. Whether you are looking to take on a new role, or making a career switch into the financial industry, we have resources to help you on your career journey bit.ly/ibf-careersc

To request for career advice and guidance session with a career adviser, please complete this form: bit.ly/ca-register