

FAQs on Transitional Arrangements for the Implementation of the New CMFAS Exams

(Note: This set of FAQs is to be read in conjunction with the IBF Examinations FAQs)

Q1. I have registered to sit for a module under the current CMFAS Exams. However, I would like to sit for the equivalent new module under the new CMFAS Exams in April 2024 instead. Can I register for the new CMFAS module instead, and request for a refund of the exam fees for the current CMFAS module that I have already registered?

A1. If you change your mind and decide to take the new CMFAS module instead of the current CMFAS module that you have already registered, you may choose to register for the new module through your IBF Portal Account with payment of the full fee for the revised module. The paid exam fees will not be refunded except under certain exceptional circumstances as set out in A2.

Q2. I have registered to sit for a module under the current CMFAS Exams but I am not able to take my exam as scheduled by 25 March 2024 due to personal reasons, e.g. on medical leave. Can I transfer my exam to the equivalent module under the new CMFAS Exams without incurring additional fee?

A2. If you are unable to take your current exam as scheduled by 25 March 2024 due to the following exceptional circumstances (non-exhaustive), you must write in to IBF Examinations (exams@ibf.org.sg), together with the relevant supporting documentation, within 3 business days from the original exam date:

- (a) Sickness or ill health, with a valid medical certificate;
- (b) Compassionate reasons e.g. bereavement of immediate family members;
- (c) Disabling accident or injury to self;
- (d) Court appearance (self); or
- (e) National service in accordance with the Enlistment Act 1970.

In such situations, IBF will refund you the exam fee paid for the registered current module. You may log in to your IBF Portal Account to register for the new exam module under the new CMFAS Exams for your preferred session, with payment of the new fee.

Q3. Can I re-take my exam under the current CMFAS Exams after 25 March 2024?

A3. You are unable to do so as all modules under the current CMFAS Exams will be discontinued after 25 March 2024. You may register, with effect from 1 Feb 2024, for the new CMFAS Exams modules based on the types of regulated activities as specified in the MAS Notice SFA 04-N22 which will take effect on 1 April 2024.

Q4. Will I still be able to access my past exam results under the current CMFAS Exams after 25 March 2024?

A4. YES, you can continue to access these records via your IBF Portal Account.
